

June 2016

I had the great fortune of witnessing Joyce Grant connecting with children of all ages at a local community event that showcased talent from within the neighborhood.

A gifted and engaging presenter, Joyce interacted with her audience in a way that allowed them to be participants rather than simply observers.

Children were giggling, guessing and drawn to her talented use of accents.

She comes highly recommended!

Jennifer King Fehely
Professional British Canadian Storyteller
royalstories@gmail.com